1. Introduction

HR Policy manual of Nadar Saraswathi College of Engineering and Technology, Theni 625 531 provides guidelines that outline employee expectations, organizational obligations, disciplinary procedures and behavior standards.

The information in this HR policy is important to all the employees of NSCET and they should read the manual and duly sign. This HR policy is to be referred whenever a clarification on college policies/benefits is required.

In this HR policy, detailed information for each category is not expected. Instead, a summary of key policies is provided. Throughout the document, employees are advised to consult with their respective Department Heads or the administrative section for comprehensive details on HR policies and benefits.

Circumstances will obviously require that the policies, practices and benefits described in the HR policy change from time to time. The college reserves the right to amend, modify, rescind, delete, supplement or add to the provisions of this HR policy as it deems appropriate from time to time in its sole and absolute discretion. However, no amendment or modification of the "Terms of Employment" provisions of this HR policy shall be effective unless made in writing, and signed by the Principal/Secretary of the college. The college will attempt to provide the employees with notification of any other changes as they occur.

2. About us

Theni Melapettai Hindu Nadargal Uravinmurai (TMHNU) Educational and Charitable Trust, has contributed immensely in the field of education, since its establishment in the year 1898. The first seed of education was planted in the year 1919 in the name of Nadar Saraswathi Vidhyalaya with just 38 students and 2 teachers. Committed to unblemished hard work, dedication, devotion and determination to serve the society, today we are very proud to say that a total of 12 educational institutions have been established to cater to the demands of the people in various streams at strategic points in

14. Faculty Welfare

14.1 Objective:

To encourage faculty members to take part in conferences, workshops, seminars, STTP's, NPTEL Courses and training programmes that will improve their pedagogical approaches, teaching strategies, academic skills, and use of new technology.

14.2 Responsibility:

- All the teaching & Non-teaching staff members
- Head of the respective departments
- Office staff members
- Principal

14.3 Policy:

1. Identification of Programs:

The teaching and non-teaching members find pertinent recent trends, social needs, workshops, conferences, seminars, or professional development programmes that are in line with their research, teaching, or institutional aims at the beginning of each academic year.

2. Specialized Training Needs of Faculty members

Faculty members who need to acquire specific skills, such as data analysis, grant writing, or technology integration, may be grouped together. This allows for a targeted approach in addressing these needs during training sessions.

3. Programs Organization for FDP

The faculty members must attend the programs including those offered by ATAL, AICTE, NIT, IIT, Anna University, and other reputed Universities & Institutions.

4. Approval Process

Upon incorporating revisions and obtaining budget approval, the finalized proposal is submitted to the Principal & Secretary through the NSCET - CFE Cell. Once sanctioned, faculty members can then avail the approved financial benefits.

5. Funding Guidelines

To request financial assistance, faculty members must submit a detailed proposal outlining conference/workshop/seminar specifics, objectives, and field relevance. The budget breakdown should cover registration fees, travel, accommodation, and related expenses. Evaluation criteria include the event's academic relevance, potential impact on faculty growth, and budget considerations. Funding approval is contingent on the proposal's merit and adherence to these criteria.

6. On Duty (OD) for FDP

Faculty members participating in the Faculty Development Programs (FDPs) are eligible for On Duty status.

7. Reporting

Following the Faculty Development Programs (FDPs), faculty members are required to submit a report along with the relevant and required documents.

- Faculty members must consistently acknowledge the individuality of their fellow teachers, honoring their sentiments, and respecting their value system

- Faculty members should always strive to assist their fellow teachers, whether in improving their teaching practices or in making necessary adjustments to fulfill their responsibilities.

15.4. Disciplinary Procedures:

- Any staff member found in violation of the code of conduct outlined in Section 14.2 of this Manual will be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action by the Principal, Secretary, or President.
- If a staff member commits an act of misconduct or misdemeanor by violating the code of conduct, anyone can report it in writing to the Principal.
- The Principal will conduct a preliminary inquiry into the matter promptly by summoning the individual implicated in the report.
- If the Principal is content with the facts revealed during this inquiry, the disciplinary process will be initiated, based on the seriousness of the violation.
- A Show Cause Notice will be issued, clearly outlining the offense and the proposed actions, affording the accused teacher ample time to provide their explanation.
- Upon receiving the explanation or after the expiration of the specified time for submission, the Principal will evaluate the merit of the explanation and decide on the appropriate course of action, which may involve disciplinary measures.

The process for disciplining a teacher shall fall under the following categories:

- Memo and Censure.
- Warning in writing, with recovery of financial loss is involved in the act.
- Suspension from work without remuneration.
- Dismissal or discharge from service.
- Any staff member receiving more than two memo or warning will be given punishments as mentioned above.
- The Principal shall report the proceedings periodically to the Secretary/ President.

15.5 Grievance Redressal Procedure

- The Principal shall establish a Grievance Redressal Committee to address the grievances of the teaching and non-teaching staff.
- The Grievance Redressal Committee shall consist of senior faculty members, Heads of Departments, and the Principal/Secretary.
- The Principal shall announce the Constitution of the Committee and the names of members at the beginning of every academic year.

The Grievance Redressal Committee shall:

- i) Have a convener, to monitor the proceedings
 - ii) Meet once in every month on a stipulated day and time
- Any teaching or non-teaching staff with grievances should submit a representation to the Committee.
 - The convener of the Grievance Committee shall include such grievance as an item of the agenda in the next weekly meeting, unless the seriousness of the grievance warrants a meeting to be commissioned immediately.
 - The grievances shall be redressed immediately by the committee and by the Principal.
 - The convener shall record and maintain the minutes of the meetings.

15.6 Suggestion Box

The college has placed suggestion boxes in all prominent areas for employees and students to provide their suggestions and foster a culture of feedback.

16. Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure

The college may provide and make available certain information including admissions, teaching and learning, brand building and other relevant information without limitation.

- Brand Building programs and methodology
- The techniques used in approach or result of any market research
- Advertising sources
- Financial information about the College
- Students information reports; and mailing plans and programs;

Email Policy: All official communication shall be done through email unless otherwise needed official documents should not be forwarded to others outside the institution.

Whether written or verbal, or stored on computer hardware or software, ("Information") is of substantial value, highly confidential, and is not known to the general public. It is the subject of reasonable efforts to maintain its secrecy, constitutes the professional and trade secrets of the College, and is being provided and disclosed to you solely for use in connection with your employment by the College. In consideration of your employment and receipt of the Information, you agree that you:

- a. Shall regard and preserve the information as highly confidential and as the trade secrets of the College.
 - b. Shall not disclose, nor permit to be disclosed, any of the information to any person or entity, absent written consent and approval from the College.
 - c. Shall not photocopy or duplicate, and will not permit any person to photocopy or duplicate, any of the information without the College's written consent and approval.
 - d. Shall not make any use of information for their own benefit or the benefit of any person or entity other than the College.
 - e. Shall return all Information to the College immediately upon request.
- Nothing in this policy alters the at-will nature of the employment relationship.

17. Conflict of Interest

Employees are obligated to steer clear of any conflicts of interest during their tenure with the College. Any engagement that contradicts an employee's duties or responsibilities or impacts the staff member's judgment or the college's decision-making process will be deemed a conflict of interest.

Employees are allowed to pursue outside business or personal interests or activities, provided they do not create a conflict of interest with their employment by the college.

18. Non-Harassment Policy

In order to create and maintain a community in which teaching, non-teaching staff and students can work together in an environment free of sexual violence, harassment, exploitation, and intimidation, NSCET has proactively established a cell for Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) under the recommendation of National Accreditation and Assessment Council.

This includes all forms of gender violence, sexual harassment, and discrimination on the basis of sex/ gender. This also meets the obligation as mandated by the Supreme Court of India, in its landmark judgment in August 1997 viz., Vishaka & others vs. the State of Rajasthan & others which stated that every instance of sexual harassment is a violation of "Fundamental Rights" under articles 14, 15 and 21 of the Constitution of India, and amounts to a violation of the "Right to Freedom" under Article 19(1)(g).

This judgment makes it obligatory for every employer and other responsible persons to follow the guide lines laid down by the court and to evolve a specific policy to combat sexual harassment in the work place. Educational institutions are bound by the same directive. Thus, NSCET has proactively established cell for Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH).

Roles

- Prevent discrimination and sexual harassment against women, by promoting gender amity among students and employees.
- Deal with cases of discrimination and sexual harassment against women, in a time bound manner, aiming at ensuring support services for the victimized and termination of the harassment.
- To ensure that appropriate action is taken against the offenders.
- To ensure that victims and witnesses are not victimized or discriminated because of their complaint.
- Implement proactive measures for sensitizing the working and learning community on gender issues, ensuring that the college fosters an inclusive and excellent workplace for all.
- Recommend suitable punitive actions against the party found guilty to the cell.

19. Employment Discrimination Policy

The college provides equal opportunities to employees and makes employment decisions based on competency. Our aim is to have the best individuals in every job, and therefore, the college prohibits discrimination and does not allow its employees to discriminate against others based on caste, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, pregnancy, marital status, national origin, citizenship, veteran status, ancestry, age, physical or mental disability (an impairment that limits a major life activity), medical condition, genetic characteristic, or any other consideration made unlawful by applicable laws. Equal employment opportunity applies to all persons in all aspects of the employer-employee relationship, including recruitment, hiring, upgrading, training, promotion, transfer, discipline, layoff, recall, and termination.

If a faculty member believes that he/she or another staff member has been subjected to any form of unlawful discrimination, they have the duty to promptly report the incident or incidents, including the facts, names of individuals involved, and names of any witnesses, to the management.

The matter will be promptly and thoroughly investigated, with confidentiality maintained to the possible extent. After a comprehensive review of evidences, a decision will be reached regarding whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that discrimination has occurred. It is the responsibility of all employees to fully cooperate in the investigation process. The college deems any conduct based on unlawful discrimination as a serious offense, which may result in disciplinary action for the offender, including termination.

The college is committed to taking action to prevent future incidents of discrimination. Moreover, disciplinary measures will be enforced against any employee who tries to dissuade or hinder another employee from bringing discrimination to the attention of management. The individuals involved will be informed of the determination, if deemed appropriate. The college wants to reassure all its employees that steps will be taken to safeguard those who report discrimination from further acts of discrimination, coercion, threats, or retaliation due to their involvement in reporting an incident or participating in an investigation or proceeding related to the alleged discrimination.

20. off-Duty Employees

All Employees/students are required to leave the college property at the end of their regular working hours. Employees are not permitted to come back the college until the start of the next workday. If needed, they should get permission from the Principal or Secretary to come to college either after the scheduled working hours or during holidays.

21. Rumors

Rumors are invariably destructive to all parties involved, providing no benefits. If you have concerns or questions, seek clarification from the respective Head of the Department, Management, or any other authority figure. Please feel free to do so—do not rely on rumors; instead, gather the facts. Employees are expected to actively discourage the initiation or spread of rumors and to refrain from participating in such actions.

22. Staff Sports

- Sports for staff members are conducted during the sports day, and the winners receive shields and medals as awards.
- Staff members are permitted to participate in sports events within the college.

23. Good Housekeeping

Employees are required to maintain the tidiness of their work area and utilize the services and facilities provided to them. They can contribute to enhancing the cleanliness of their working areas by reporting conditions that could be improved to their supervisor.

24. Personal Record Policy

24.1 Personnel Record Updating

It's crucial to maintain accurate information regarding employees' names, addresses, and telephone numbers in college records. Occasionally, supervisors or other college personnel may contact employees at home. Additionally, employees may miss important correspondence from the college, if their address is not on file. Therefore, it is the responsibility of employees to promptly report any changes in their name, address, telephone number, or other matters affecting tax withholding to the Head of the Department.

24.2 Personal File

The college maintains personal files for employees. The employee's file, excluding letters of reference and other limited types of information, is open for inspection upon request at reasonable times.

The college is committed to keeping personnel records confidential. However, there are certain situations when information may be disclosed to individuals outside the college. These situations include:

- Responses to legal issues, court orders, or orders from administrative agencies.
- In a lawsuit in which the employee and/or the college are parties.
- To administer employee benefit plans and to a healthcare provider.

25. College Equipment Monitoring, Access or Inspection

All college laboratory machines, equipment, and furnishings, (but not limited to desks, cabinets, files, and lockers), are the property of the college, and the college reserves the right to monitor, access, and inspect such equipment and furnishings. Therefore, employees/students should have no expectation of privacy concerning any information or material stored in college-owned equipment and furnishings.

26. E-Mail and Computer Files

College-provided emails and computers are to be used for college purposes only and may not be used for personal business. Consequently, all messages sent, received, composed, and/or stored on these systems are the sole property of the College.

- College computers should not be utilized to access online databases or internet services unless the access is for work-related purposes. While the college recognizes occasional personal business needs, such use must be limited to break time and should not excessively consume computing and network resources.
- Excessive use of computer and/or network resources includes listening to audio broadcasts (live or prerecorded) on the internet, viewing video broadcasts (live or prerecorded), and downloading large data files for personal use. Unauthorized access to computing and network resources from the internet is strictly prohibited, unless expressly authorized by the Principal/Secretary or the supervisors overseeing the computing and network resources.

- Messages or communications on the college's email or computer systems are subject to the same policies regarding harassment and discrimination as any other workplace communications. Offensive, harassing, or discriminatory content will not be tolerated. Offensive content encompasses messages containing sexual implications, cultural insults, gender-specific comments, or any statement that offensively addresses someone's age, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy status, marital status, religious or political beliefs, ancestry, national origin, citizenship, or disability.

- Employees should not expect privacy regarding College-provided email and computer-based communications. Even when a message is erased, it may still be retrievable from a backup system. Therefore, employees should not rely on erasure to guarantee message privacy. The college reserves the right to listen to employees' voicemail, read email messages, and access employees' computer files to ensure compliance with these rules. This may be done without any prior notice to the employees and in the staff member's absence as well.

- Despite the college's right to retrieve and review such material, it should be treated as confidential by other employees and accessed only by the intended recipient. Employees are not authorized to retrieve any email messages that are not addressed to them.

- Employees are prohibited from using passwords without prior college authorization. The existence of a password on email or computer systems does not guarantee the privacy of messages or other communications.

- Employees are prohibited from loading any software onto the college-provided computers, if such action would violate the software license.

- Employees are prohibited from loading any software onto the college-provided computer without the approval of the Principal/Secretary.

- The email system should not be used to send (upload) or receive (download) copyrighted materials, trade secrets, proprietary information, or similar matter without prior authorization from the Principal/Secretary.

27. Safety

For the employees' protection and the safety of fellow employees and students, the management encourages employees to work safely and utilize all the provided safety devices. Safety is a collective responsibility, particularly for employees, who play a crucial role in making the college a safe workplace. If any unsafe working conditions are observed, employees should promptly report them to the designated authority. All hazardous conditions will be thoroughly investigated and appropriately rectified.

- Accidents benefit no one, and working under hazardous conditions is undesirable for everyone. The college is committed to maintaining a consistent safety program, but its ultimate success relies on the safety consciousness of the employees.

28. Surveillance Camera

For the purpose of enhancing campus security, surveillance cameras with audio recorders have been installed throughout the campus.

29. Fire Extinguishers

Fire extinguishers of various types are positioned at key points.

30. Termination of Service / Resignation

30.1 Termination of Service

- A member of the staff shall have his / her service terminated by giving three months' notice.

The appointing authority shall have the power to terminate the services of a member of the staff of the college, for any of the following reasons:

- Serious misconduct and willful negligence of duty
- Gross insubordination
- Physical or mental unfitness
- Participation in any criminal offence involving moral turpitude
- In such termination cases, the staff member will not be eligible for any terminal benefits.

30.2 Resignation/Retirement

- If any faculty member wishes to resign from their position, they can be relieved from service only at the end of the academic year with a 3-month notice.
- They will be relieved after completing the necessary formalities.

31. Employee HR Policy Revisions

This document is designed to encompass a sufficient understanding of the employee's work situation. The college reserves the right to amend, modify, withdraw, delete, supplement, or add to the provisions of this HR policy as it deems appropriate from time to time in its sole and absolute discretion.

However, no amendment or modification of this HR policy shall be effective unless made in writing by the Principal and signed by the Secretary/Joint Secretary of the college. The college will make an effort to notify employees of any other changes as they occur.
