EVENT REPORT

Name of the Programme : POSH Awareness -Essay Competition.

Date : 30.07.2025

No of Participants : 60

Place : Drawing Hall.

Description : As part of the ongoing initiatives by the POSH Cell, an Essay Competition was conducted on 30th July 2025 to raise awareness about gender sensitivity and the prevention of sexual harassment. The competition focused on three thought-provoking topics: "My Role in Creating a Safe Campus", "The Importance of Consent", and "Gender Sensitivity in Professional Spaces."

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from over 60 students across various departments. Participants expressed their thoughts with clarity and depth, highlighting the significance of mutual respect, personal boundaries, and gender equality in academic and professional environments. The essays reflected a strong understanding of the POSH Act and the collective responsibility of students in maintaining a safe and inclusive campus.

The best essays were awarded certificates and prizes to encourage continued awareness and active involvement. The POSH Cell appreciated the participants for their honest reflections and reaffirmed its commitment to fostering a harassment-free environment.

This competition served as a platform to empower students to be vocal, vigilant, and value-driven individuals, supporting the broader mission of a safe and respectful educational space.
